

Veterans Voice #3 – Nov. 2017

Welcome to Veterans Voice – a monthly column by members of Woodstock Unit #95 ANAVETS for all veterans, still serving members, first responders, and those who care about their issues.

Did You Know?

Vets have lost their homes
Have had their medication reduced
Have been denied benefits for an injury
Some have resorted to living in their cars or on the streets
Vets are fighting to receive due benefits

Do You Care?

If you care, talk to us..we need your help in righting these wrongs!

When this column is published, Veterans Week and Remembrance Day will be over for this year. Remembering all veterans should be a daily thing – not an annual thing.

We are pleased to have the German Trophy Field Gun back in place. It has been nearly a 5-year effort but worth the time and money to have it restored. Thanks to all the staff involved from King's Landing, BID, Keenan's, town of Woodstock crew and – of course – the ANAVETS Project team. Well done!

Military Humour

During an army basic training, the lieutenant took the batch on a match and asked each of them where home was. After everyone had answered, he sneered and said "you are all wrong, the army is now your home".

Back at the barracks, he read the evening duties, then asked the first sergeant if he had anything to say "you bet I do" the sergeant replied, "men, while you were gone today, I found beds improperly made, clothes not hanging correctly, shoes not shined and footlockers a mess. Where do you think you are? Home?"
